DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Coulton et al. ('613). Coulton teaches an element comprising a resilient air permeable pad 36 of interconnected filaments having opposed sides, and a pair of gripping members 50,60 that are each secured to opposed sides of the pad, each of the gripping members are substantially rigid plates that extend from the top to the bottom of the pad. At least one of the gripping members is provided with an outer surface that is roughly textured by way of the nature of the material, and at least one of the gripping members is provided with ruled markings 58.
